PINK AND WHITE FLOW FABRIC

WHITE TULLE ROBE

This graceful white tulle dress can be worn in a number of ways to reveal or cover the belly and be worn on during the newborn or maternity session. It is stunning when tossed or allowing the wind to lift it.

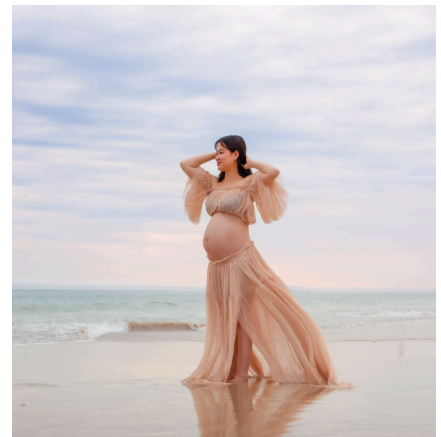

RED TULLE ROBE

This graceful red tulle dress can be worn in a number of ways to reveal or cover the belly and be worn on during the newborn or maternity session. It is stunning when tossed or allowing the wind to lift it.

CHAMPAGNE TULLE TWO PIECE

The champagne two piece in tulle is perfect for allowing light to pass through, glowing in the sunset. The skirt can be worn above or below the belly and with or without a slip.

A pregnant woman with long brown hair, wearing a white lace dress and a floral headband, stands barefoot on a grassy bank. She is holding her belly and looking out over a river towards a sunset. The background features a line of trees and a bright sun low on the horizon, creating a warm, golden glow. The word "LACEY" is overlaid in large white letters.
